

RELEASE CHOW HANG-TUNG

To: Secretary for Justice Paul Lam, Hong Kong

Human rights lawyer and labour rights advocate Chow Hang-tung was charged for “inciting subversion” under the National Security Law on September 9, 2021. She faces 10 years’ imprisonment. At the time of being charged, she was vice-chair of the Hong Kong Alliance in Support of Patriotic Democratic Movements of China, organizer of the annual Hong Kong vigil commemorating the 1989 Tiananmen crackdown.

We call on you to:

- Drop all charges against and release Chow Hang-tung immediately, as she was charged solely for peacefully exercising her rights.
- Review and amend all laws and regulations, and end all related measures, that violate the exercise of human rights, in particular the rights to freedom of expression, peaceful assembly, and association.
