

RELEASE SALAH HAMMOURI

To: Minister of Defence Benny Gantz, Israel

French-Palestinian lawyer and human rights defender Salah Hammouri has been repeatedly harassed and detained for his human rights work. On March 7, 2022, he was again detained under a 3-month administrative detention order. On June 5, his detention was extended for another three months.

Israel's Ministry of Interior is also trying to revoke Salah Hammouri's residency status in East Jerusalem, putting him at risk of deportation.

We call on you to:

- Release Salah Hammouri immediately if he is not promptly charged with an internationally recognized criminal offence.
- Allow him to retain his residency status and continue his human rights work without fear of reprisals.
