

FIGHTING TO SAVE THEIR ANCESTRAL LANDS

To: Prime Minister of Australia

Uncle Pabai and Uncle Paul’s ancestors have lived on islands of the Torres Strait, the northernmost part of Australia, for thousands of years. Now their whole way of life – which as Indigenous Peoples is deeply connected to land, sea and sky – is at risk because of climate change. If the islands become uninhabitable, they will be forced to break these connections and leave their homelands.

We call on you to protect the rights of First Nations communities in the Torres Strait by rapidly reducing carbon emissions in line with the world commitment of limiting global warming to 1.5°C in line with the best available scientific research.

Yours sincerely,
