

KEEP HOPE ALIVE IN COLOMBIA

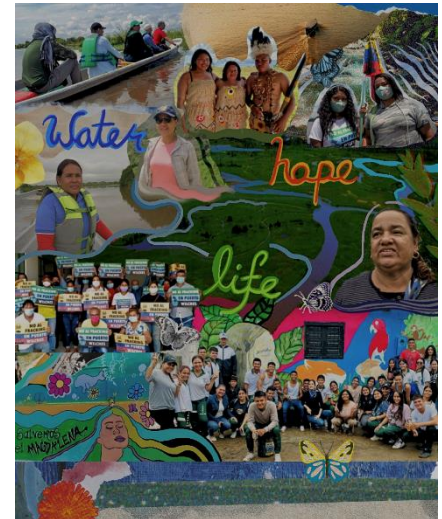

To: Interior Minister Luis Fernando Velasco

We are deeply concerned by ongoing death threats, attacks, and assassinations of defenders of land, Indigenous territory, water, rights, and a healthy environment in Colombia.

We call on you to:

- Establish collaborative working groups with threatened defenders to develop responses that meet their needs.
- Ensure full implementation of protection measures by the National Protection Unit and the collective protection policy.
- Work closely with the Attorney General’s Office to deliver effective investigations to bring to justice the perpetrators of threats and attacks.
- Coordinate with local governments for prompt emergency responses.
