Release Social Media Influencer Neth Nahara

To: President of Angola

On August 12, 2023, Neth Nahara went live on TikTok and openly criticized the Angolan President João Lourenço. Neth was arrested at her home the next day. She was tried, convicted and sentenced to six months in prison, later increased to two years.

The Angolan authorities are using a controversial new law to silence critical voices which makes "insulting" the president a crime.

We demand the immediate and unconditional release of Ana da Silva Miguel, known as "Neth

Nahara". Yours sincerely,

Justice for Joel Paredes #ProtectTheProtest

To: Attorney General of the Public Prosecutor's Office, Argentina

On June 30, 2023, Joel Paredes attended a peaceful protest against local constitutional changes, including restrictions on the right to peaceful assembly – changes that may cause damage to the environment and risk violating the land rights of Indigenous Peoples. Police recklessly fired rubber bullets at protesters. Joel was hit, permanently blinding him in the right eye. No one has been held accountable.

We call on you to identify those responsible for Joel Paredes's injuries and all other violations against protesters and bring them to justice in accordance with international law and standards.

Yours sincerely,

Release Activist Maryia Kalesnikava

To: Minister of Foreign Affairs, Belarus

Activist and musician Maryia Kalesnikava spoke out against arbitrary arrests and abuses of the electoral process during the widely disputed presidential election in Belarus in 2020. Maryia was prosecuted on trumped-up charges and sentenced to 11 years in prison simply for exercising her right to freedom of expression and association.

We demand the immediate and unconditional release of Maryia Kalesnikava. We also call on you to protect Maryia from torture and other ill-treatment, provide her with access to adequate healthcare, allow her contact with her lawyers and family, overturn her unjust conviction, and delete her name from the government's list of individuals involved in "terrorist activities".

Yours sincerely,

Protect Wet'suwet'en land defenders

To: Premier of British Colombia, Canada

The Wet'suwet'en Nation are deeply connected to their ancestral lands, but their way of life is threatened by the construction of a fossil fuel pipeline through their territory. Their Hereditary Chiefs (on behalf of their clans) did not consent to its construction. Land defenders took peaceful action to stop the pipeline construction. They were met with intimidation, harassment and criminalization. Some could face time in prison and a criminal record.

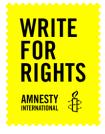

We demand that the Government of British Columbia stop the criminalization and harassment of Wet'suwet'en land defenders and their allies.

Release Student Oqba Hashad

To: President of Egypt

Oqba Hashad, a 27-year-old student, has been held in pretrial detention since May 2019, solely in retaliation for his brother's human rights activism. Egyptian authorities forcibly disappeared and tortured Oqba and continue to deny him the prosthetic leg he has used since a childhood accident, leaving him physically reliant on others. Held in terrible conditions without adequate healthcare, a new bogus case against him has been opened to justify his continued detention.

We demand the immediate and unconditional release of Oqba Hashad.

Support Women's Human Rights Defenders

To: Minister of Justice, Saudi Arabia

In November 2022, Manahel al-Otaibi was arrested for campaigning for women's rights online and posting photos to Snapchat of herself at a shopping mall without wearing a traditional abaya. Saudi Arabia's authorities claim they are advancing women's rights and Manahel felt freer to express her views and wear what she liked. Now she has been sentenced to 11 years in prison.

We demand the immediate and unconditional release of Manahel al-Otaibi and that all charges against her are dropped.

A world where no one is left behind

To: Mayor of Seoul, South Korea

Kyung Seok Park organizes peaceful protests to draw attention to the difficulties people with disabilities face in accessing public transport safely. In response, Kyung Seok Park has faced the use of unlawful force by police, public smear campaigns, and punitive litigation by the authorities.

We call on you to ensure people's right to peaceful assembly by ending the use of unlawful force, retaliatory litigation, and smear campaigns against Kyung Seok Park and Solidarity Against Disability Discrimination activists. We need a world where people with disabilities can fully participate in all aspects of life.

Protect Human Rights Defenders

To: Minister of Justice, Türkiye

Forensic medicine expert Şebnem Korur Fincancı has been subjected to baseless criminal investigations, detention and prosecutions for years in an attempt to silence her and stop her human rights work. In January 2023, she was convicted for allegedly "making propaganda for a terrorist organization" after she had called for an investigation into allegations that the Turkish military was using chemical weapons in Iraq.

We call on you to ensure the criminal justice system is not misused to harass forensic medicine expert Şebnem Korur Fincancı and no other charges are brought against her for defending human rights.

Free environmental lawyer Dang Dinh Bach

To: President of Viet Nam

Dang Dinh Bach has dedicated his life to improving the health and livelihoods of people in Viet Nam and protecting them from the threats of pollution and climate change. On June 24, 2021, Bach was arrested and jailed for alleged tax evasion, a crime he did not commit. He was later sentenced to five years in prison following a trial which United Nations experts considered unfair.

We call on you to immediately and unconditionally release environmental lawyer Dang Dinh Bach. Pending his release, we urge you to protect him from all forms of torture and other ill-treatment and provide him with adequate healthcare.

Yours sincerely,
